

Participants are advised to go over the course at least once prior to the race
 All roads will have automobile traffic. Participants are responsible for their own safety. Other than at the race starting line, there will be no traffic control.

Note: Each contestant is responsible for knowing the course. Any runner having finished his/her leg who